When You Can Register

You can apply to register to vote at any time. However, there is a 29 day deadline prior to each election for registering to vote or for changing party affiliation. When the registration books are closed for an election, updates to a voter's name, address and signature shall be the only changes permitted for purposes of the upcoming election.

The date your voter registration application is postmarked or hand delivered to any drivers license office, voter registration agency, armed forces recruitment office, the Division of Elections or any Supervisor of Elections Office, will be your registration date. (section 97.053, Florida Statute) If your application is complete and you are qualified as a voter, a voter information card will be mailed to you.

Voter registration and party changes will be accepted after book closing, but only for the purpose of subsequent elections.

(Section 97.055, Florida Statutes)

Voter Information Cards

After registering to vote you will receive your Voter Information Card in the mail. This card is only to provide voter information and is not required to vote. The card will list your address, date of birth, registration date and number, party affiliation, precinct number, location and address, as well as the districts for your representation.

If your precinct location or polling place should change, you will be notified and issued a new Voter Information Card in the mail.

Restoration of Civil Rights

Persons seeking Restoration of Civil Rights under Florida Law must submit an application for clemency. To check your current status or to download a civil rights restoration application, visit <https://fcor.state.fl.us/restoration.shtml>. If your Civil Rights have been restored, you must re-register to vote by completing a Voter Registration Application Form.

It is the voter's responsibility to notify the Elections Office:

- ★ If you moved within the state of Florida, you may change your address by signed written notice, phone call or e-mail. You must provide your date of birth. With Clay County's use of electronic poll books, registered Florida voters may perform an in-state address change on Election Day.

Closed Primary State

What does it mean?

In a closed primary election, voters are limited to choosing candidates of their own party.

If you chose the Republican Party you are allowed to vote only for republican candidates.

If you chose the Democratic Party, you are allowed to vote only for democratic candidates.

If you chose a minor party or no party affiliation, you are allowed to vote in non-partisan contests and referendums in the primary election.

NOTE: A party change can be made on a voter registration application or by signed written notice including the voter's date of birth or voter registration number. A party change must be made prior to the end of the 29th day before an election.

NOTE: An applicant who fails to designate a political party affiliation will be registered without party affiliation.

NOTE: If all candidates for a race are affiliated with one party and the decision will be made in the Primary Election, everyone who is registered to vote for that election will be allowed to cast a ballot. A Write-in candidate would close the primary to only party affiliated voters.

Some reasons for issuing a provisional ballot:

- ★ Voter status displays ballot has been cast by mail or early vote.
- ★ Voter's eligibility status is in question.
- ★ A challenge has been made about the eligibility of a voter.

The county canvassing board is responsible for examining the provisional ballot certificate and making a determination as to the voter's eligibility. A provisional ballot voter must be given notice of rights including the right to show evidence of eligibility to vote. Evidence must be presented by no later than 5 p.m. the second day following the election. Once eligibility has been determined, the provisional ballot will be counted.

Vote by Mail

Any qualified registered voter in Clay County is eligible to vote by mail. Request a mail ballot to be sent to the voter's address on record in person, by phone, e-mail or mail. If the requested ballot is to be mailed to an address other than the voter's address on file, the request must be made in writing and signed by the voter. Military members and their dependents are exempt from this requirement. An immediate family member or legal guardian may request a mail ballot for a voter. The voter making the request must disclose the following information:
