2014 GENERAL ELECTION VOTER REGISTRATION BOOK CLOSING

The deadline to register to for the 2014 General Election is Monday, October 6, 2014. You must be registered to vote in order to cast a ballot in the General Election to be held on November 4, 2014. Voter registration applications will be accepted at the Supervisor of Elections office Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at 500 North Orange Avenue, Green Cove Springs, FL 32043.

Applications are available at the Supervisor of Elections office, all public libraries, many governmental agencies, post offices and public assistance offices. Applications may also be obtained from the Clay County Supervisor of Elections website at <http://www.ClayElections.com>. The online form must be printed, signed and post marked by October 6, 2014. Any voter registration applications postmarked or received after October 6, 2014 will be held for processing until after the November 4, 2014 General Election.

All voters are encouraged to check their registration status at www.ClayElections.com to ensure their record is up to date. Voters who have moved within the state of Florida should report their address change to the Supervisor of Elections office via phone, online, in person or in writing. Clay County voters are permitted to change their address at the precinct on Election Day, however, voters are encouraged to change their address prior to Election Day to avoid delays at the polls.

The Supervisor of Elections staff is dedicated to serving the voters of Clay County. Please call (904) 269-6350 or visit www.ClayElections.com if you have any questions.
