Ballots Mailed to Domestic Civilian Voters for the Municipal Super Tuesday Election

The Clay County Supervisor of Elections Office mailed ballots to Keystone Heights domestic civilian voters today for the April 12, 2016 Municipal Super Tuesday Election.

State law requires domestic ballots to be mailed between 35 and 28 days prior to an election. Domestic voters are civilian voters residing within the Keystone Heights and active duty military voters residing in Keystone Heights.

Additional mail ballot requests will be fulfilled daily as received. To request a mail ballot, visit www.ClayElections.com, call (352) 473-4807, or email abrequests@ClayElections.com. The deadline to request that a ballot be mailed is by close of business on April 6th.
