MAIN VOTER PARTICIPATION CENTER (VPC) Creates Confusion for Clay County Voters

A recent letter from The Voter Participation Center has ignited confusion for Clay County voters once again. After the greeting, the letter clearly states, “According to our records, you reside in Clay County and are not currently registered to vote.” The letter also provides a Voter Registration Application with the voter’s name and address pre-filled. Although the letter is signed by Page Gardner of the VPC, some recipients believe the letter is from the Clay County Supervisor of Elections. Voters have called/mailed the Elections Office to voice their concerns.

Recipients of the letter can contact VPC directly or Jennifer Carrier to address concerns and/or be removed from the VPC mailing list.
