ELECTION WORKER APPRECIATION DAY PROCLAIMED

The Clay County Board of County Commissioners recognized and celebrated the dedicated work of Clay County's Election Workers, and declared January 10, 2017 as Election Worker Appreciation Day. The board and elections office, along with the residents of Clay County, applauded the efforts and expressed immense gratitude to all past, present, and future Clay County Election Workers.

Their commitment to democracy and the many long hours of service have not gone unnoticed. Elections in Clay County are conducted in a fair and transparent manner in part due to all of the Election Workers' hard work and dedication; they work tirelessly to keep the polling places open 12 consecutive hours per day, after many hours of mandatory training prior to the election.
