73.19% TURNOUT FOR 2012 GENERAL ELECTION

More than 97,000 people voted in Clay County during the 2012 General Election, with a 73.19 percent turnout, including mail ballots (absentee) and early voting. Of the total ballots cast, 62 percent of those were cast prior to Election Day, either through early voting or mail ballot.

“Congratulations to Precinct 604 at the Green Cove Springs City Hall for posting the highest precinct turnout at 84.9 percent. Precinct 406 at the Eagle Harbor Soccer Club posted an 83.69 percent turnout, and Precinct 124 at the Orange Park Country Club posted an 83.53 percent turnout,” said Chris Chambless, Clay County Supervisor of Elections.

All of Clay County’s 48 precincts had reported their results by 9:00 p.m. Countless hours of preparation and planning led to a smooth election in Clay County. Intensive poll worker training, extensive testing of the voting equipment and the dedication of the staff, poll workers, other county workers and volunteers allowed for an extremely successful election in Clay County.

There were 132,585 registered voters eligible to vote in this election.
